

Global Observatory for Gender Equality & Sport

Good Practice Story Template

Title of the story

(max. 15 words)

Full list of authors

- Name, country, affiliation and role
-
-

List 3- 6 key words which describe the story

-
-
-

Summary

(max. 150 words)

Write a summary of your story.

Problem Statement

(200 words)

Clearly explain the country and context(s) where the program(s) is based, including the ongoing challenges that girls and women face.

About the Program

(250-400 words)

Provide information about your program.

Please include information on the following:

- Describe what the program, what does it do, who does it engage, and what it aims to achieve
- Explain how the program is implemented in your context.

- Describe how does it addresses gender-based violence (GBV) prevention and management and/or women's empowerment in and through PEPAS,
- Explain how your program overcomes the challenges and inequalities women and girls face.
- Please explain how it has contributed to gender equality in your context.
 - If applicable, state the specific processes and steps taken to integrate Sexual Reproductive Health Rights within Universal Health Coverage, and how it addresses gender-based violence prevention and management

Outcomes

(150 words)

Explain the outcomes of the program. How has your program contributed to gender equality in the context. Use evidence that demonstrates your program's outcomes (e.g. participation numbers, survey results, behavioural changes, social attitudes etc.).

Successes and Challenges

(200 words)

- Explain the successes of the program. What are some examples that show the program's success? What are the results of the program?
- Explain the challenges. What are some of the challenges you have faced and how have you overcome these challenges? What are the challenges that you continue to face?

Lessons and Recommendations

(approx. 200 words, max. 5 bullet points)

Clearly explain your key lessons and recommendations from your program that others can learn from and uptake in their own work. Please be specific to ensure that your learnings are actionable.

References

Include 2-10 URLs to evidence to support the information you used to write the Good Practice Story.

Complementary material

(optional)

Include links to documents/websites/videos for further understanding of the topic)